My Testimony of God's Protection

My focus on prayer began in 2009 when God spoke to me audibly, saying: "If I didn't make you wait, you wouldn't have prayed. Make sure that you pray from now on!" Since then, God has protected me through dreams, people, His Word, and miraculous interventions.

For example, my sister once dreamed of our family being attacked by a demon, and the dream showed her removing it with honey—symbolizing the need for Christ's love and kindness to overcome harmful words. I've also received dreams warning me about betrayal, guiding me in tests, and alerting me to pray against spiritual attacks.

Prayer—especially praying God's Word—is vital. It reminds you of God's promises when the enemy tries to fill your heart with fear and doubt. God uses dreams, Scripture, and His messengers to assure you that He is always with you, empowering you with spiritual authority.

God's protection is real and active. By renewing your mind and submitting to God's ways, you build strength to stand against the enemy's attacks. Satan wants to steal your peace and faith through fear and pain—pray boldly against it, and trust that God wants to keep you safe.
